Chapter 13 of the City Charter states:

There shall be in the City of Minneapolis an executive department of the City to be known as the "City Planning Department," which shall serve as the staff of a City planning commission consisting of ten (10) persons. One shall be the Mayor; one shall be a person selected by the County Board of the County of Hennepin as its representative; the City Council, the School Board, and the Park Board shall each select one of its own members, as a member of the Commission, in January of each even-numbered year; four (4) legal voters of the municipality not members of any of the above bodies or boards shall be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the City Council; and one (1) legal voter of the municipality not a member of any of the above bodies or boards shall be appointed by the City Council in January of each even-numbered year.

Each year the Mayor shall appoint two (2) members to serve for terms of two (2) years each, commencing on the first day of February of the year of their appointment. The terms of appointed members serving for terms to expire in July, 1978, and July 1979, shall each terminate on January 31, 1978, and the terms of members appointed for terms to expire in July 1980, and July 1981, shall each terminate on January 31, 1979. Vacancies for any unexpired term shall be filled by appointments or selection as in the first instance.
